LAST YEAR

Minnesota played its first regular season games in the state of Ohio and swept the Buckeyes 7-2 and 6-3. The Golden Gophers scored on eight of their 16 power play chances for the weekend.

Minnesota jumped out to a 6-1 lead after two periods in the opening game with four goals in the second period. Seven different players scored goals for the Golden Gophers, who held a 43-21 advantage in shots, including 23-3 in the dominant second period.

On Saturday, the Gophers carried over their momentum by outshooting Ohio State 18-4 in the first period in building a 2-0 advantage. Minnesota again had a balanced scoring attack with six different players scoring goals. The Gophers finished the night four-for-seven on the power play.

SERIES STORYLINES

- Minnesota is 15-1-2 in last 18 games vs. CCHA
- Gophers are 10-1 all-time against Ohio State
- Minnesota playing first three-game regular season weekend since Dec. 27-29, 1973

Series Overview

Minnesota plays its first home games this weekend with three games, hosting Ohio State on Thursday and Friday before taking on the U.S. Under-18 team in an exhibition game on Saturday. Both games in this week's series with the Buckeyes will be televised regionally on FSN North. The Gophers were swept last weekend on the road for the first time since 2004 with two WCHA-opening losses at Colorado College. Minnesota is 10-1 all-time in the series with Ohio State.

The Series vs. Ohio State

The Golden Gophers hold a 10-1 all-time record against the Buckeyes in a series dating back to 1968. Minnesota swept Ohio State 7-2 and 6-3 last season in its first-ever visit to Columbus. The Gophers are 5-1 against the Buckeyes at home and have won all three meetings on neutral ice.

This weekend's games mark the first time Ohio State has played a two-game series at Mariucci Arena since Minnesota posted a sweep on Jan. 2-3, 1981. The Gophers have outscored the Buckeyes 68-27 in their 10 meetings. Minnesota's only loss in the series came in the third-place game of the Dodge Holiday Classic on Dec. 28, 1998 as the Buckeyes scored with seven seconds left in regulation for a 6-5 victory.

About the Buckeyes

Ohio State opened the year by capturing the Lefty McFadden Invitational in Dayton, Ohio with a 2-1 comeback win over Mercyhurst and a 5-2 victory over Wisconsin in the title game. The Buckeyes lost their conference-opening series last weekend against Miami with a pair of 5-1 defeats in a home-and-home series.

Ohio State's nine goals this season have come from eight different players as senior Tommy Goebel is the only player with two goals. The Buckeyes have played seven seniors and 11 freshmen among the 23 players who have seen the ice this season. Sophomore goaltender Joseph Palmer has played every minute in goal and has a 3.50 goals against average with an .850 save percentage.

Last Time Out

Minnesota dropped both ends of its WCHA-opening series at Colorado College with a 3-1 setback on Friday and a 2-1 overtime loss on Saturday.

After each team scored a first period goal, Colorado College tallied 25 seconds into the second period on Friday. Cade Fairchild scored the Gophers' lone goal as Minnesota had a 13-6 advantage in shots in the first period. Each team had 24 shots on goal as Richard Bachman made 23 saves in his collegiate debut for the Tigers.

On Saturday, Blake Wheeler gave Minnesota a one-goal lead in the second period before the Tigers caught the Gophers on a long second period line change for a power play goal later in the period. Minnesota put 21 shots on goal in the third period and 39 for the game, but the Tigers' Chad Rau scored the game-winner 2:42 into overtime.

Mirror Images

Minnesota and Ohio State have had remarkably similar starts to the 2007-08 season:

* - Both squads won their season-openers by rallying from third period deficits. Minnesota trailed Rennselaer 3-1 in the final period and came back for a 4-3 win, while Ohio State scored two third period goals for a 2-1 win over Mercyhurst.

*- Both teams claimed tournament titles on the opening weekend as Minnesota beat Michigan for the IceBreaker tournament crown and Ohio State topped Wisconsin for the Lefty McFadden Invitational championship.

*- Both teams opened 0-2 in league play last weekend against highly-ranked opponents with Minnesota losing twice at now fourth-ranked Colorado College and the Buckeyes dropping both ends of a home-and-home series with second-ranked Miami.

* - Both teams had struggles on the power play last weekend as Minnesota was 0-for-11 and Ohio State was 1-for-13.

* - Both teams have had balanced scoring through four games. Minnesota has had eight different players score its 10 goals, while Ohio State has had eight players combined for its nine goals. Each team has one player with multiple goals through four games.

*- Both teams have used one goaltender in all four games this season.

Odd Opening

Minnesota opened 0-2 in the WCHA for just the second time in the last 14 years and fourth time since 1973-74. It hasn't mattered much, however, since the Gophers still advanced to the NCAA tournament the last four times they started 0-2, including three WCHA playoff titles. Minnesota was also 0-2 in 2003-04, 1993-94 and 1989-90. The only time the Gophers were 0-3 during that span was in 1993-94. They also lost their first two league games in 1973-74 and went on to win their first NCAA title.

CCHA Dominance

Minnesota has had plenty of success in recent years against the other major western hockey conference, the Central Collegiate Hockey Association. The Gophers are 15-1-2 in their last 18 games against the rival league with the only loss coming in the 2005-06 season opener to Alaska. The Gophers also tied Alaska the following night and played a tie at Michigan State later that season. Minnesota went 5-0 against the CCHA last year, sweeping Ohio State and also beating Michigan, Michigan State and Ferris State. The Gophers are 6-0-2 in their last eight games against the CCHA, including their win over Michigan earlier this year. Following this weekend's series with Ohio State, the Gophers have two games remaining with CCHA opponents at Michigan State and Michigan.

Big Ten Bullies

Although the Golden Gophers play in the WCHA, there are some strong ties to the three other Big Ten teams that sponsor hockey. Minnesota owns a solid 385-234-38 (.615) record against Big Ten foes Ohio State, Michigan, Michigan State and Wisconsin with winning records against each. Under coach Don Lucia, Minnesota is 19-5-2 (.769) against Big Ten opponents. The Gophers went 8-1 against Big Ten foes last season and beat Michigan earlier this year.

Before Michigan, Michigan State and Ohio State joined the CCHA, the five teams competed for the Big Ten Championship. Between 1959 and 1981, Minnesota captured 10 titles, while Michigan, Michigan State and Wisconsin each took home five (including co-champs).

Out of This League

In Don Lucia's eight-plus seasons as head coach, the Gophers have compiled a staggering 61-14-7 (.787) record in games against teams from outside the WCHA, including the post-season. Minnesota went 9-1 against non-WCHA opponents last season with its only loss coming in the season opener against Maine. The Gophers boast a 50-7-7 record against non-conference foes since the 2001-02 season, including their wins over Rennselaer and Michigan earlier this season.

Triple Play

This weekend marks a rare regular season three-game series for the Gophers, who play an exhibition game with the U.S. Under-18 team on Saturday. The last time Minnesota scheduled regular season games on three consecutive days was Dec. 27-29, 1973. The Gophers beat Harvard and lost to St. Louis University in the St. Louis holiday tournament and then came home and suffered a 7-1 exhibition game loss to the Czech national team at the Met Center in Bloomington. Minnesota has played three consecutive days several times in the postseason, including last season's WCHA first round series with Alaska Anchorage.

Thursday Night Special

Minnesota is playing a rare Thursday-Friday home series this week. Excluding games in the holiday classic that have fallen on Thursdays, the last time the Gophers played a Thursday night regular season game was Jan. 31, 1991 when they hosted Minnesota Duluth in the first game of a two-game series. The last Thursday game overall was against Union in the Dodge Holiday Classic on Dec. 29, 2005. Minnesota has played several Thursday exhibition, Final Five and Frozen Four games.

Pro Prospects

This weekend's series features 20 players holding National Hockey League draft rights. Minnesota has 14 players in its lineup that have been drafted by NHL teams, while Ohio State has six players with NHL draft rights. Minnesota's Blake Wheeler (Phoenix), Kyle Okposo (New York Islanders), David Fischer (Montreal) and Patrick White (Vancouver) were all first round picks. The Gophers' Jeff Frazee (New Jersey) and Mike Hoeffel (New Jersey) were second round picks along with Ohio State's Tom Fritsche (Colorado). This season marks the seventh straight year that Minnesota has had at least 10 players on its roster with NHL draft rights.

Road Rarity

Minnesota has been outstanding in road games in recent years and suffered its first sweep away from home last weekend since Feb. 27-28, 2004 at Denver. The losses also marked the first time the Gophers dropped a weekend series at Colorado College since Feb. 5-6, 1999, which was prior to Don Lucia's arrival as head coach. Under Lucia, the Gophers are 79-43-14 away from home, including a 13-2-1 mark last season. With a loss at St. Cloud State in the final road game last year, the Gophers have lost three straight on the road after posting a remarkable 22-1-4 record over their previous 27 road contests.

Power Shortage

Minnesota's power play had a strong debut with three goals in its first 10 chances in the season-opener against Rensselaer. However, since Kyle Okposo's game-winning goal with 1:11 remaining in that game, the Gophers have not scored on their last 16 power play opportunities. The Gophers are 3-for-26 on the power play this season, which is reminiscent of last year when Minnesota was 3-for-24 over its first three games before breaking out by scoring in eight of 16 chances in the series sweep of Ohio State. The Gophers finished the season seventh nationally at 20.6 percent.

Balanced Attack

Minnesota has featured a balanced offensive attack with eight players combining to score the team's 10 goals this season. Only Blake Wheeler has multiple goals for the Gophers, finding the net three times this season. Minnesota also has had 14 different players combine for the team's 27 points this year.

Among the Best

Minnesota is ranked 10th in both of this week's national polls and has now been ranked in the nation's top 15 for 95 consecutive weeks during the hockey season. Minnesota has not fallen out of the top 15 since the week of Dec. 15, 2003. This week's ranking snapped a string of 25 consecutive weeks that the Gophers had been ranked among the nation's top five teams. Minnesota has still been ranked among nation's top 10 for 60 of the last 61 weeks during the hockey season. The Gophers dropped to 13th on Nov. 7, 2005 after a loss and tie to Minnesota Duluth, but returned to the top 10 the following week.

Home Sweet Home

Minnesota owns a 5-2-1 record in its eight home openers under head coach Don Lucia. The Gophers' only losses were in 2005-06 to Alaska and in 2003-04 to Minnesota Duluth. Minnesota is 10-0-1 in its last 11 home non-conference games, having won 10 straight.

Stoa Out

Minnesota will play the remainder of the season without junior forward Ryan Stoa, who suffered a knee injury early in the second game of the season against Michigan and will require surgery.

An assistant captain, Stoa scored the team's first goal of the season to spark a comeback from a three-goal deficit against Rensselaer. He also assisted Kyle Okposo on the game-winning goal with 1:11 remaining in the third period. The Bloomington, Minn. native ranked seventh on the team with 12 goals and 12 assists for 24 points during 2006-07. Stoa played in all 41 games as a freshman and appeared in 41 of 44 games last season. Including his goal and assist last weekend, Stoa has 23 goals and 28 assists for 51 career points.

Breaking the Ice

Minnesota opened the season by claiming its first IceBreaker tournament title, having finished third in its only other appearance in 1998. The Golden Gophers lost to St. Lawrence 6-4 and beat Ohio State 4-3 in the 1998 event, which was played at Mariucci Arena.

WCHA Players of the Week

Offensive Player of the Week - Kyle Turris, Fr., F, Wisconsin

Turris collected three goals and five assists in Wisconsin's 7-2 and 8-2 victories over Robert Morris. He had two power-play goals and two assists in the Friday victory and then added another power-play goal and three assists in the win last Saturday.

Defensive Player of the Week - Richard Bachman, Fr., G, Colorado College

Bachman stopped 61 of 63 shots on goal and posted five shutout periods, including one overtime, while backstopping the host Tigers to a 3-1 victory over the Gophers last Friday and a 2-1 overtime win last Saturday in his first collegiate games.

Rookie of the Week - Winston DayChief, Fr., F, Alaska Anchorage

DayChief assisted the third period game-winner last Friday as Alaska Anchorage skated past the Alaska 4-3. He then came back on Saturday to score two goals, including the eventual game-winner at 18:56 of the second period in a 5-3 victory over the Nanooks.

2006-07 in Review

The University of Minnesota men's hockey team is making a habit of raising banners to the Mariucci Arena rafters under head coach Don Lucia as the Golden Gophers captured the 2006-07 WCHA regular season championship and the 2007 WCHA Final Five championship to hang their seventh and eighth banners in the last six seasons.

The Golden Gophers finished the season with a 31-10-3 overall record and an 18-7-3 mark in WCHA play. Minnesota captured the MacNaughton Cup on the last weekend of the regular season, finishing four points ahead of second-place St. Cloud State. After topping Alaska-Anchorage in three games in the first round of the WCHA Playoffs, the Golden Gophers downed their top two arch-rivals to capture the WCHA Final Five and the Broadmoor Trophy.

From there, Minnesota earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the sixth consecutive season and made its nation-leading 31st appearance in the NCAA Tournament, including its seventh in a row. After a come-from-behind 4-3 win over Air Force in the first round of the 2007 NCAA West Regional in Denver, the team's season came to an end in heartbreaking fashion as North Dakota edged Minnesota 3-2 in overtime.

Minnesota finished the 2006-07 season with its most wins (31) since the 2001-02 National Champion Golden Gophers went 32-8-4. The Golden Gophers' senior class of Kellen Briggs and Mike Vannelli finished their careers as one of the most productive classes in school history. Together, the two seniors won two WCHA titles, two WCHA Final Five crowns, appeared in four NCAA Tournaments and one Frozen Four, and won nearly 70 percent of their games in the last four years. The Golden Gophers were the nation's top-ranked team for 11 weeks of the 2006-07 season.

2007 WCHA Final Five Champions

Minnesota captured its 14th WCHA Playoff Championship at the 2007 WCHA Final Five with wins over arch-rivals Wisconsin and North Dakota. Against the Badgers, Blake Wheeler recorded his first career hat trick and Kellen Briggs made 29 saves to lead Minnesota to a 4-2 win. Wheeler scored to give the Golden Gophers leads at 1-0 and 3-2, and iced the game with an empty-net goal to notch his first hat trick since the 2004 Minnesota State High School Class A Tournament Championship Game at the Xcel Energy Center.

Against North Dakota, Wheeler scored a goal for the ages with a diving shot at 3:25 of overtime to lift Minnesota to a 3-2 win. Wheeler dove for a puck low on the right side to beat Sioux goaltender Phillippe Lamoureux high to the far side. The goal handed the Golden Gophers their first Broadmoor Trophy since 2003-04 and their first MacNaughton Cup/Broadmoor Trophy season since 1980-81. The Golden Gophers never trailed during the game, getting goals from Wheeler, Erik Johnson and Ben Gordon to notch their first win over the Fighting Sioux on the season.

87th Season of Gopher Hockey

Minnesota is playing its 87th season of men's hockey in 2007-08. The first year of competition was 1921-22 when the Golden Gophers captured the conference title under head coach I.D. MacDonald with a 6-3-1 record. Minnesota's first game was a 2-1 loss to Harvard on Jan. 17, 1922. Minnesota owns a 1,557-865-146 (.635) all-time record.

Wheeler Rolling

Minnesota junior Blake Wheeler leads the team with three goals and one assist and has scored one point in each of the team's four games this year. Wheeler also had a strong finish to the 2006-07 season with four goals and an assist in the team's two WCHA Final Five games.

Saving the Day

Jeff Frazee's 44 saves against Michigan marked the most saves by a Golden Gophers' goaltender since Adam Hauser made 45 stops in a 2-2 tie against St. Cloud State on Dec. 1, 2001. Michigan's 47 shots on goal were the most by a Minnesota opponent since St. Cloud State also had 47 in that same game. The most shots the Golden Gophers surrendered in a game last season was 45 in a 5-4 win over Denver on Jan. 20. Frazee stopped 41 shots in that game to give Minnesota the victory.

Unlikely Source

The Gophers opened their win against Michigan with a goal from an unusual offensive source as junior defenseman R.J. Anderson tallied the game's first score. It was the first career goal for Anderson, who was playing in his 71st career game. He has also collected 10 career assists.

Child's Play

Minnesota freshman defenseman Cade Fairchild has had a strong start to his collegiate career, posting a goal and an assist in his first two games after not playing in the season opener. In three games, Fairchild also leads the team with a plus-four rating, which is remarkable considering the team has been outscored 8-6 and lost two of those three games.

Streak Snapped

Gophers' forward Jay Barriball had three assists in the team's first two games, but had a seven-game scoring streak snapped in the opener at Colorado College.

Against the Best

Minnesota has been solid in games against the nation's top 15 teams since the beginning of the 2000-01 season. In the past seven-plus years, the Gophers are 76-55-8 (.576) in games against teams ranked in the top 15. Minnesota has already played three games against such teams this season and plays two more this weekend as Ohio State is ranked 14th. Seventh-ranked Denver lies ahead for the Gophers next week. In 2006-07, Minnesota was 8-7 against ranked foes.

Survey Says...

Minnesota was picked to finish second in the 37th annual Grand Forks Herald WCHA Preseason Coaches Poll. The Gophers received three of 10 first-place votes and 74 points, while North Dakota received the other seven first-place votes and 79 overall. The Gophers were the preseason favorite for the past two seasons and three of the last five years. Winning the last two MacNaughton Cups, Minnesota became the first preseason favorite to win the conference title since North Dakota in 1998-99.

Strength of Schedule

As usual, Minnesota's 2007-08 schedule will be one of the nation's most competitive. The Gophers will face five teams who competed in the 2007 NCAA tournament. Minnesota will play Michigan State, North Dakota, Michigan, St. Cloud State and either Boston College or Air Force. Michigan State, North Dakota and Boston College all participated in last year's NCAA Frozen Four.

In addition, Minnesota will play at least eight teams ranked this week's USA Today/USA Hockey national poll - No. 1 North Dakota, No. 3 Michigan, No. 4 Colorado College, No. 7 Denver, No. 9 Michigan State, No. 11 Wisconsin, No. 14 Ohio State and No. 15 Michigan Tech. A possible matchup with No. 5 Boston College looms in the Dodge Holiday Classic. Minnesota will be playing 13 of its first 18 games against teams in this week's national poll.

Homegrown Talent

For the first time since Don Lucia's first season in 1999-2000, Minnesota's roster features every player hailing from the state of Minnesota. Last season, goaltender Kellen Briggs from Colorado was the only outsider.

Firepower Returns

Minnesota returns over 69 percent of its scoring and 81.4 percent of its goal scoring from last year's team that ranked third in the NCAA Division I in scoring offense at 3.66 goals per game. Minnesota returns its top two scorers, Jay Barriball (43) and Kyle Okposo (40) from last season.

Mariucci Mystique

Mariucci Arena has been tabbed one of the nation's best college sports venues, ranking eighth on a list published this past summer by Sports Illustrated on Campus. Mariucci Arena was the only hockey venue in the top 10, which was topped by the Rose Bowl. Others ahead of Mariucci were Duke's Cameron Indoor Stadium, Florida's Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, Michigan Stadium, Omaha's Rosenblatt Stadium, Pennsylvania's University City Palestra, and Army's Michie Stadium. The Gophers drew at least 9,700 fans for all 24 games last year and had 15 crowds bigger than 10,000. Minnesota drew a total of 240,537 fans last season for an average of 10,022 per game.

Hanging Banners

With the 2006-07 WCHA Championship and 2007 WCHA Final Five title, Minnesota has now risen at least one banner to the rafters of Mariucci Arena in five of the past six seasons. The Gophers hung an NCAA Championship banner in 2001-02, WCHA Final Five and NCAA Championship banners in 2002-03, WCHA Final Five banners in 2003-04 and 2006-07, and WCHA Championship banners in 2005-06 and 2006-07.

Peltier Named Captain

Senior defenseman Derek Peltier has been voted by his teammates to serve as the team captain for the 2007-08 season. Senior forwards Mike Howe and Evan Kaufmann and junior forward Ryan Stoa were also named assistant captains. Peltier becomes the fifth blueliner in the last eight years to earn the captain title and the second straight, following Mike Vannelli in 2006-07.

20-Win Plateau

Minnesota reached the 20-win plateau eight consecutive seasons. In the last 33 seasons, the Gophers have failed to reach 20 wins only three times (1976-77, 1997-98, 1998-99). During the Don Lucia era (since the beginning of the 1999-2000 season), the Gophers have averaged better than 27 wins per season.

Comebacks

The season-opening comeback win over Rennselaer marked the first time Minnesota has rallied from a three-goal deficit to win since beating Massachusetts-Lowell on Dec. 30, 2005. In fact, Minnesota did not win a game when trailing by more than one goal all of last season and last rallied from a two-goal deficit for a win at Denver on Nov. 19, 2005. The Gophers did rally from a 3-0 deficit last year to tie Minnesota State 5-5.
